1 On June 12, 2017, ten days after they filed their Motion for Partial Summary
2 Judgment and supporting documents, Plaintiffs' filed a document entitled 3 “[Corrected] Plaintiffs’ Statement of Uncontroverted Facts and Conclusions of 4 Law in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Partial Summary Judgment.” Although it 5 is titled as simply being “corrected”, the document in fact includes over three 6 pages of substantive “conclusions of law” that were not included in their prior 7 statement as required by the local rules. By filing this “corrected” document, 8 Plaintiffs are attempting to avoid Defendants’ objection that their statement was 9 procedurally defective. Such is improper, and should be disregarded in its entirety.
